"The Supreme Macaroni Company" is, I believe, the third book in a trilogy about Valentine and her family and her family's business. The author shines when she is describing the ups and downs that are common in Valentine's big Italian family. Coming from a big Italian family myself, her voice is authentic and very enjoyable

THE SUPREME MACARONI COMPANY by Adriana Trigiani Way too much navel gazing for me this time around. I usually enjoy Trigiani's books, this one just seemed to spend too much time on Valentine's inner thoughts and self-recriminations. You do find out why she chose the title three fourth of the way through the book.
